

Sid,

Hi! This is Amy Brice, Kennedy's mother. She has talked about working with Titus to everyone she has met since leaving set. He truly made a lasting impression on her, as did you and your team. Thank you again for helping her have such a wonderful experience.

I have attached her headshot, resume, film reel, tv reel and a few articles about her like you suggested. Any help or recommendations you could offer her in this business would be so appreciated...as you have seen first-hand, she loves it and I just want to keep her doing what she loves. :)

Again, thank you so much! It is because of people like you that she has met throughout her very new career that has really fueled her desire to keep doing this. As a mother, this means more than you will ever know.

Thank you again!
Amy Brice
