To whom it may concern:

In the spring of 2010, Mr. Sid Yost supplied my show, “The Gates,” with three trainers and six hybrid wolves for five months while we were shooting our drama series in Louisiana.

“The Gates” was produced by Fox Television Studios for The ABC Television Network, and was highly regarded for its production value, including some spectacular footage with wolves.

Sid came to me and offered to meet my budget requirements at a level of very high production value. (Sid is very user friendly that way.)

I did research on Mr. Yost and knew about his troubles with PETA but felt that had paid his dues and deserved another chance.

Wow, was I happy; Sid delivered to me everything I wanted and 1000% more. His trainers worked hard, were prepared and on time, and performed with the animals to a very high standard.

In addition, the wolves were penned on one of our locations, so we were in a relationship 24/7. My location host was thrilled to have Sid and his wolves—and so was I. And we have a few scattered other animals and of course Sid did them all.

I am thrilled with the growth of his business in Louisiana, and it is with a great pleasure that I recommend Sid Yost and Animal Actors to you at this time—on both Coasts.

Most sincerely,
